New Viessmann Group website combines company purpose, family history, newsroom and career portal.

www.viessmann.family invites you to get to know the Viessmann Group even better.

The large Viessmann family with over 12,300 members is introduced.

In addition to company values, a timeline and an introduction of the company management.

Current news and job offers via the career portal.

Berlin and Allendorf, 16.09.2020 - The Viessmann Group launches a new global web portal today, www.viessmann.family. With this, the family-owned company, now in its fourth generation with Max Viessmann, provides a comprehensive overview of all relevant information on heating and air conditioning solutions as well as all contact details at a glance.

The site is aimed at journalists, but also functions as a multimedia user experience for a global target group; business partners, customers, potential or existing employees. At the same time, viessmann.family also complements the international offerings of the 40 or so country websites.

Five categories: What Viessmann stands for

The website clearly expresses in five categories who we are, what we stand for, what we do, how we act and where we can be found. www.viessmann.family shows where we see our ecological, social and economic responsibility and what sustainability means to us. We show our path to digitalisation and what other products are available in our portfolio in addition to classic heating. Through exciting articles on www.viessmann.family, users can find out how we want to design living space for future generations. Finally, our family members introduce themselves and their personal Viessmann stories - from CEO to manager to logistics driver.

Join the family: The career portal highlights opportunities

The viessmann.family career portal is open to anyone who wants to shape and develop Viessmann themselves. Here you will find all vacancies as well as information on personnel development and management principles. Those who are interested can also find out about training or dual studies at Viessmann. The "Working at Viessmann" section provides fitting inspiration; authentic portraits allow you to get to know individual family members, their areas of work and their personal development.

Up-to-date, international and responsive

The website is complemented by the newly designed newsroom, which keeps up to date with all the latest news about the company and the energy sector.

We look forward to your visit to www.viessmann.family. Our website is available in German and English in a responsive design for all end devices.
